

EXPERT SEMINAR PATIENT SAFETY EDUCATION: WHERE ARE WE AT?

Programme

Monday 9th March 2009

Time: 8:45am-4:30pm

Venue:

The University of Sydney, Darlington Centre
Conference Room 1

8:45	Welcome to Country Mr Chikka Madden	2:00	How to assess patient safety Associate Professor Chris Roberts Venue: Boardroom
8:50	Opening The Hon. John Della Bosca, Minister for Health	3:00	Challenges for Interprofessional Learning in patient safety Ms Gillian Nisbet Venue: Meeting Room 1
9:00	Patient safety education: the role of the universities Associate Professor Merrilyn Walton	12:30	Lunch
9:20	JMOs – Patient safety education for interns and residents Associate Professor Michael Agrez	1:30	Hospital perspective on patient safety education Dr Philipp Hoyle, Director of Clinical Governance, NSCC Area Health Service
9:40	Patient safety education: at the vocational level Dr Sue Ieraci, Senior Staff Specialist, Emergency Medicine, Bankstown Hospital	2:00	The role of the NSW Medical Board in patient safety education Associate Professor Peter Procopis, President
10:00	IMET's role in patient safety education Associate Professor Simon Willcock, Acting Director of IMET	2:30	The Clinical Excellence Commission - Facilitating and coordinating patient safety education and training - Whose role? Professor Cliff Hughes, CEO
10:25	Morning Tea	3:00	Afternoon Tea
10:45	Workshops 1: How to develop and implement patient safety curriculum Associate Professor M Walton, Dr Rola Ajjawi, Ms Samantha Van Staalduinien Venue: Conference Room 1	3:20	Round Table Facilitator: Professor Stewart Dunn Participants: Professor Bruce Barraclough plus speakers from the day